

Uninstall your GFI® product

To uninstall your GFI product:

1. Click Start > Control Panel.
2. If your Control Panel is in Category view, click Uninstall a program under the Programs section. If Control Panel is in Icons view, click Programs and Features.
3. Select the GFI product to uninstall from the list of installed software.
4. From the top menu bar, click Uninstall.

NOTE: Some GFI products require third-party components or settings that you might need to remove or revert back to original configuration after uninstalling this GFI product. Check your GFI Product documentation (<http://support.gfi.com/manuals>) for a list of third party components and settings. We recommend you refer to the respective manufacturer's instructions before uninstalling third party components.
